Where are you from and how did you get into modeling?
 I was raised in and born in Holland. It is Indonesian/Italian father and a Dutch mother. Modeling kind of hit in my age of age 15, when my aunt sent me out in a picture of me to the National Fashion Modeling Competition. I was chosen to compete and made it to the final, which eventually landed me in Milan to pursue a modeling career. I am so fortunate to have worked with many top photographers such as Patrick Demarchelier, Steven Meisel, and Fabrizio Garani and have appeared in Campaigns with my Gianni Versace, Anna Nicole Smith, Victoria Secret, and Cavallari and have been on the cover of Magazines all over the world. After being in Milan, my modeling career took me to New York and eventually landed me in Los Angeles, which I now call home with my sweet daughter.

Tell us about your personal style.
 I am most comfortable in jeans, t-shirt and my black Hawaiian flipflops but love dressing up, classy, sophisticated with a bit of sexy. I do not enjoy wearing a pant suit with high heels, actually beautiful gold accessories and showing just a touch of skin in the neckline, showing some imagination in the eye of the beholder.

What are your favorite fashion designers?
 There are many designers and styles that some of my favorites are Alexander Vankov, Katgen and Giorgio Armani. I love the Italian new sophisticated and elegant fashion of Rome. One of my favorite local designers is Chaves of Nola which is an Italian brand based in Los Angeles and I enjoy wearing the many beautiful hand crafted creation of "Blue Office" designed by Philippe Lue. I wear them a lot during my energy work with animals and people.

How did you become a Reiki Master and Medium for people and animals?
 I discovered Reiki through a conversation with a total stranger at a metaphysical store. I had never heard of Reiki before but when she explained the healing benefits of this vibrational energy, it immediately resonated with me. I decided to explore my interest further through a formal Reiki Training. It wasn't long before I realized that is what I was meant to do, heal and help people. Reiki is one of the oldest healing systems often used as a complement to conventional therapies in many hospitals. Through clearing of blocked energy from people reduce stress and create a feeling of inner peace and harmony to the body's natural healing abilities can improve and maintain optimal health. As an intuitive guide I use my perceptions to see, hear and feel dimensions to answer my client's questions and concerns. In addition, I also communicate with the spirits as a medium to help clients reconnect with a loved one who has passed on. In addition, I implement CEE, or cognitive behavioral therapy, which is a technique that can help people find new ways to behave by shifting their thought patterns. I guide them in healing old mental and emotional wounds. But keep them stuck.
